Welcome, Guests!

Welcome to Riverside! Thank you for joining us as our honored guest to worship God together today. Please stay with us briefly after the service so that we can welcome you personally. We meet together to praise God and to encourage one another. At Riverside, the Bible is our only guide for worship and the Christian life. We would be happy to answer any questions that you may have about the Riverside church family. Please visit us again whenever you have the opportunity!

What is the Opposite of Neglect?

In Hebrews 10:24-25, the writer admonishes, "And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another..." (ESV). Many are familiar with the passage as a prohibition on "neglecting to meet together." The inclination is to see the opposite of neglecting to meet together as simply meeting together, but this is not the contrast that the writer makes. The writer contrasts neglecting to meet together with encouraging one another. Failing to encourage one another is neglecting the assembly. Let us always remember to be intentional about stirring up one another to love and good works when we are together. -Cooper Atkeson

Pray For Others

Pray for our members who are in nursing/assisted living facilities: Doris Burton, Ann Marshall, Kathy O'Hara. Some visits are now allowed, check with the facility prior to visiting. Your visits would be much appreciated. Cards and phone calls also relieve the isolation.

Also, remember Chad Lovelady, who is a police officer in Fredericksburg.

Al and Donna Horne are suffering multiple health issues and continuing to be impacted by political and civil unrest in South Africa. Please remember them in prayer.
