God and the Nations

The nation of Edom, descendants of Esau and a brother-nation to Israel, are condemned in the book of Obadiah for neglecting Judah when they were being taken by Babylon – even mocking Judah and turning over their refugees to Babylon. Edom was also very proud of their wealth and their military security. It is for this neglect and pride that Edom was judged. The prophets reveal that God observes, uses, and judges the nations. God still does this today. However, we should not be quick to observe world events and presume to know God's intentions. It is difficult - even in retrospect - to discern how God is working, but we can be sure that God is working something for the good of his people and for his glory.

“And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and a report about him went out through all the surrounding country. And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all. And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. And as was his custom, he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and he stood up to read. And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written, ‘The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.’” Luke 4:14-19
