Keep Your Fork

A woman was diagnosed with terminal cancer and told that she had three months to live. As she and her minister were planning her funeral, she said, “When I am buried, I want to be buried with my favorite Bible.” “No problem,” the minister replied. Then she said, “I also want to be buried with a fork in my right hand.” The minister was surprised and didn’t know what to say. She said, “Every potluck, after the main course, they would clear the tables. Someone would always say, ‘Keep your fork,’ because dessert was coming. That was my favorite part of the meal. When I am laid out in my casket with a fork in my hand, I want people to ask, ‘What’s with the fork?’ And then you will have the opportunity to tell them, ‘Keep your fork, because the best is yet to come.’” -A story from the files of Jake Preston, the late son-in-law of Bob Bolton.

Beth Bearden fell and broke her hip. She is at Hilltop, Room D62. She would love visitors.

Al and Donna Horne are suffering multiple health issues. Donna has been in the hospital, and Al is facing hip replacement surgery. Please remember them in prayer.

Pray for our members who are in nursing/assisted living facilities: Beth Bearden, Doris Burton, Ann Marshall, Kathy O'Hara. Some visits are now allowed, check with the facility prior to visiting. Your visits would be much appreciated. Cards and phone calls also relieve the isolation.

Also, remember Chad Lovelady, who is a police officer in Fredericksburg.
